

The Present as Morphogenesis Stanley Keleman

June/2013, Berkeley Ca

The body the serpent of animation a ripening morphing from less to more,
from a skin,
into a cortex,
the octopi of division and differentiation,
that forms the pointillist living sky, a pointelle
of throbbing delights,
brightening the nights,
ink,
with its tongues
desires,
slithering from within
by the body and brain
the twins
grow starlight's,
flowers, within,
the cosmic armature
in intimacy,
of lying face to face,
bending and blending
pulsing together,
in a gastrulating
giving and receiving.
appearing and disappearing

within the conceived world, a hovering, wave,
 waiting,
 until death, to stay
 in the deep silence
 of dynamic intimacies
 morphogenesis,
 the molten, lava
 that illumines,
 the face,
 and sends
 echoes to the lips,
 announcements,
 there is time,
 enough,
 to be a presence
 in the present
 we make,
 for our time,
 which is the lived
 embodied life we form.

Multicultural Impact on Psychotherapy

This is the 14th Congress of the European Association for Body Psychotherapy (EABP), organized together with the International Scientific Committee of Body Psychotherapy.

The Congress focuses on Body Psychotherapy in its current richness, bringing together professionals from many European countries, Latin America and the United States. It covers theory, clinical practice, the embeddedness of our work in society as well as the cultural diversity of the movement.

We welcome you to this exchange and to a celebration of the many methodological approaches and cultural stances in the understanding of human beings that Body Psychotherapy represents.
