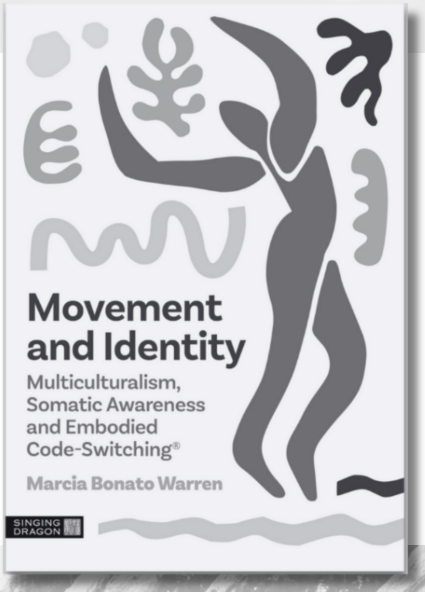
"In a world that is often fragmented, this book arrives at the perfect time—it is a beacon of light, reminding us that our strength and beauty lie in the richness of our diversity."

— Wendy Allen PhD, LPC, BC-DMT, Associate Professor of Dance/Movement Therapy at Lesley University*



This trauma-informed approach to counseling and personal growth explores the ways in which varying facets of identity and culture manifest in the body, allowing a much more nuanced, person-centered approach to client care.

Marcia Bonato Warren, MA, MA, LPC is a trauma-informed Somatic Counselor/Body Psychotherapist, Interculturalist and author with over 30 years of cross-cultural experience in the fields of somatic counseling and education, international educational exchange and Native American policy and advocacy.

An Experimental Approach to the Schizoid Character Structure

Integrate primitive reflexes with Reichian character analysis in your clinical practice

This recorded online course reveals how Fear Paralysis, Moro, Parachute, Bonding, and Pavlov's Orientation reflexes influence the schizoid character structure—as defined by Pierrakos, Lowen, and Marcher. Gain practical tools to help clients connect physiological responses to emotional well-being.

9 Video Lectures • 15 Integration Exercises • 18 Screening Tests

"The material on the schizoid structure was revolutionary." — Luke A., Psychiatrist

"Connects reflexes to character defenses in a practical, impactful way." — Rachel T., Psychologist
